Subject: Truth in Lending

Dear Sirs,

I think is about time that the Federal Reserve goes after the Credit Card Industry. They are outright thieves and they prey on everybody but mostly on the poor, without any remorse or compassion. I've been in business for over 30 years and I can tell you that if I would be doing what the credit card industry is doing today I would probably be in jail right now. I cannot wait until something is done to bring them down or at least make them abide by the law.

Best regards

Gus Nusu
